PUBLIC COUNCIL TSUULL

The overall objective of Public Council is to define a program for stakeholder engagement, including public information disclosure and consultation, throughout the construction, other project activities, and operation of the proposed projects.

It outlines the ways in which the project will engage national, international and regional stakeholders, current students, future students, faculty, researchers, labors, and contractors and provide them with a mechanism through which people can raise concerns, provide feedback, or make positive and negative complaints about the project(s) themselves.

Stakeholder engagement process for the project has started from identification, mapping and analysis. It is anticipated that this SEP will help clarify the stakeholder identification procedure at the national level and regional level for the forthcoming stages

Fight against corruption by "Compliance control" department

The university has taken several proactive measures to prevent corruption. A considerable number of students, as well as faculty and employees, actively participated in discussions and engaged with professionals during the event. These efforts are part of our commitment to maintaining a corruption-free environment within the university.

The event took place under the umbrella of "Corruption-Free Sphere" and was targeted at part-time and evening students. An educational seminar was held in collaboration with Rector's Advisor B. Utanov, responsible for ensuring socio-spiritual stability among students, and University Prevention Inspector D. Sanginov.

and the fight against corruption have to be part of the culture”*

We aim to build Peace, Justice, Strong University in our country

The platform is a secure and user-friendly communication channel specifically designed for the university rector to receive and manage emails from students. It serves as a centralized hub for students to express their concerns, suggestions, and general inquiries to the university administration.

With a simple and intuitive interface, the platform ensures ease of use for both students and the university rector. Students can draft their emails, attach relevant documents, and submit them directly from the platform. The platform also allows students to track the status of their messages, providing them with transparency and reassurance that their concerns are being addressed.

Visit our External Speakers Policy

The university supports the principle of freedom of speech and expression within the bounds of the law. However, as open and uncensored debates may involve external speakers, it is essential to establish a policy to manage such requests appropriately.

Board of TRUSTEES for Education, Research, and Strategy in SDG Fulfillment

The Board consists of several committees, including:

- Committee for Education Process: Ensuring Educational Quality and Equity.
- Committee for Research on Global Issues.
- Collaboration Committee with State and Local Authorities.
- Labor Market Assessment Committee.
- Social Welfare Committee.
- Committee for Organizing Cultural Programs.

Each committee presents issues aligned with its respective responsibilities to the overall Board for thorough discussion and analysis. Proposals resulting from these discussions are meticulously reviewed. Final decisions are reached through voting by the Board, requiring the approval of a significant majority of its members. Matters declined by the Board may be reconsidered for discussion following further review by the respective committee.

Throughout its activities, the Board has issued decisions on various significant matters, including:

- Initiating the collection of tuition fees to support financially disadvantaged female students and orphaned students requiring social assistance.
- Undertaking measures to preserve biodiversity on the university campus, including the implementation of the "Green Campus" project.
- Establishing a dedicated platform to foster continuous dialogue between university graduates and potential employers.
- Extending financial and moral support to local youth who have returned from correctional institutions or encountered fines.
- Providing financial aid to students who have successfully engaged in various educational programs.
- Engaging in legal processes relevant to matters in alignment with the university's mission in the field of legal affairs.
